SPECIAL CONDITIONS:

- To obtain water service under this schedule, an applicant must first apply for and obtain written permission from the utility.
- Applicant will be required to deposit with the utility the amount shown in the table below which corresponds to the size and type of meter used.

(N) (I)

Meter Size and Type	Refundable Deposit
1-inch	$ 242.60
1-inch (Remote Read)	$ 670.16
3-inch	$1,657.26
3-inch (Remote Read)	$2,084.82

The refundable deposit is based on two times the cost of the applicable meter. The refundable deposit is less (a) the cost of any repairs other than those due to normal depreciation and (b) any outstanding unpaid water bills, and will be returned to the customer upon return of the meter to the utility.

- On the last working day of each month, the customer shall call in or mail in (post-marked) to the utility the readings on the meter or meters under permit to the customer. All such read information must contain the meter number and reading as of the last working day of the month. The utility shall bill the customer monthly under its General Metered Service (Schedule No. 1) on the basis of such reading. Failure to so notify the utility for a period in excess of 60 days will result in loss of permission to retain the portable meter and forfeiture of the refundable meter deposit.

- 4. No such meter may be retained for a period in excess of one year. Failure to return a meter to utility at the end of one year will result in the denial in the future of such temporary service.
- 5. When a person takes water from a fire hydrant or other outlet without first having obtained written permission from the utility, the utility shall confiscate any connections used for such unauthorized taking. When a person has written permission to draw water from the utility's service area, but fails to use the meter supplied while drawing water, such failure will result in loss of permission to obtain a portable meter, forfeiture of any meter deposit, and the denial in the future of such temporary service.
- 6. All bills are subject to the reimbursement fee set forth on Schedule No. UF.
